GUEST SPEAKER

JORDIN JAMES 2019 AND 2022 DIII NATIONAL CHAMPION

Jordin James, The Mount Union graduate student won the 141-pound title at this year's 2022 NCAA Division III Wrestling Championships. It is the second national title for James following 133-pound win in 2019. James is the Purple Raiders' first two-time national champion and their third overall. His older brother Jairod won the 174-pound title in 2018.

James entered nationals as the No. 1 seed at 141. He beat Stevens Tech's Kyle Slendorn 9-8 in the semifinals and Wartburg's Zayren Terukina 3-2 in the finals. A three-time All-American, James finished 22-0 this season and has a 119-13 career record.
